Dear Mr. Marchand:

This letter is in response to a letter sent to Mr. William J. Casey, Director of Central Intelligence, by Mr. John A. Marsh, Jr., Chairman of the 1986 Loaned Executive Program, Combined Federal Campaign of the National Capital Area. In his letter, Mr. Marsh requested that the Central Intelligence Agency select one of its employees to serve as a Loaned Executive to the Combined Federal Campaign for the 1986 Campaign.

I am happy to advise that [redacted] has been selected and will be made available to serve as a Loaned Executive during the period 20 August - 6 December 1985. His office telephone number is [redacted]

Sincerely,

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

[redacted] Chief, Regulations and Procedures, Supply Division, Central Intelligence Agency, served as a Loaned Executive to the Combined Federal Campaign from last August through December.

I want you to know how very much [redacted] meant to the unprecedented success of the campaign. In raising more than $18 million this year the CFC will break all records for giving by Federal employees in the National Capital Area. Among the 46 Loaned Executives selected to give leadership to the CFC this year, [redacted] was one of the most effective.

[redacted] major responsibility in the campaign was to give leadership and assistance in the planning, conduct and evaluation of the Combined Federal Campaign in the Central Intelligence Agency, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts. These organizations had goals totalling over $400,000. [redacted] accepted this significant challenge with great enthusiasm and confidence. He personally conducted training sessions for keyworkers and worked closely with campaign coordinators and top leadership. He provided sound technical advice, developed workable campaign strategies and responded to requests of all types with courteousness, efficiency and concern.

Because of [redacted] efforts, his campaign results were extraordinary. All of his accounts exceeded their goals raising in aggregate approximately $430,000 for a 10.5 percent increase. Particularly outstanding was a 24 percent increase at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and 34 percent increase at the National Endowment for the Arts. These results are clear testimony to sense of commitment to the campaign.

STAT The Office of Personnel Management recognizes our STAT Loaned Executive Program as valuable experience for STAT promising and potential managers in developing and demonstrating competency in two major executive qualifications areas. In this regard I am pleased to report that [redacted] performance demonstrated conclusively a very high level of ability in both
"direction and guidance of programs or projects" and
"organizational representation and liaison".

STAT Please accept our thanks for making [redacted] STAT available to us this year. We hope participation in STAT the Loaned Executive Program was as meaningful and beneficial to [redacted] and to the Central Intelligence Agency as was [redacted] contribution to our overall campaign effort.

I look forward to working with the Central Intelligence Agency in our Loaned Executive Program in the years ahead as we strive together to build a better community.

Sincerely,

Francis W. Marchand, Jr.
